

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Mag. Anton (Toni) Innauer

Date of birth: 1 April 1958

Place of birth: Bezau, Bregenzerwald

Marital status: Married to Mag. Marlene Resch (maiden name)
3 children; Lisa 1985, Jakob 1988, Mario 1990

School and Education: Primary and Secondary school in Bezau
High School specialized in Skiing, Stams, Matura 1979
From 1981 University of Innsbruck and Graz , graduation in 1987 with teaching degree in Philosophy/Psychology and Sport

Registered trainer examination, general and specialized trainer for ski-jumping and cross country skiing
Registered tennis teacher

Sporting achievements and development: to 1970 Competitive downhill skier 1971 Entry into ski-jumping
1973-74 Admission to Austrian national team
1975 and 1976 Junior European Champion
1976 Olympic silver medallist at the winter Olympic games, Innsbruck 1972 2 world records in ski-jumping 174 and 176 m, respectively (Oberstdorf) 1976 First ski-jumper in history, with a jump of over 168m, to receive the perfect score of 20 from all 5 judges 1977 Silver medal in ski-jumping at World Championship, Vikersund
1980 Olympic winner and World Champion, Lake Placid, USA
1980 Career end due to injury

Professional Development: 1981-1987 (during studies) Journalistic activities as a columnist and co-commentator at ORF, Kronenzeitung, Sportmagazin and Vorarlberger Nachrichten for ski-jumping.
1981 to 1984 Part-time activities for the Italian company “ellesse” in the area of sport marketing for skiing and tennis 1987-1989 Teacher and coach at High School specialized in Skiing, Stams in addition to Junior Coach for ski-jumping in the Österreichischen Skiverband (ÖSV, Austrian Ski Association);
Achievements: 3 Junior World Championship titles 1989-1992 Ski-jump Head Coach at ÖSV
Achievements: 3 x winner in Team World Championship 1991 individual World Cup winner
1991 1x gold, 3 x silver, 1x bronze Olympic games
1992 silver in ski-jump World Championship

1992-1993 Consultant for ÖSV, creation of an analysis of all nordic ski disciplines with the focus upon cross-country skiing.

May 1993 Appointment as Nordic Sport Director in ÖSV,
Management of The disciplines of Ski jumping and cross-country skiing, Nordic combined and biathlon 1998; After many successes in other categories, Austria wins the first medal in cross-country skiing at the Olympic games in Nagano.
1999; The ÖSV-athletes win medals in all disciplines for the first time in the World Championships in Ramsau and Dachstein.
Austria is world champion in the 4x10km men's relay.

Since 1999 Competitive Director for Ski-jumping and north combination in ÖSV.

2001-02 Temporary Head Coach of ÖSV Ski-Jumping National Team following the death of Mag. Alois Lipsburger.
2001 World Champion title in Team jumping in Lahti

Since 2002 Competitive director for Ski-jumping and Nordic combined
In this period there were victories in all relevant competitions of this discipline such as in the whole World cup, Four Hills Tournament, World Championships, Ski-Jumping World Championship and Olympic Games.

1 April 2010 Retirement from the Österreichischen Skiverband.
Publication of "Am Puls des Erfolgs", practising speaker and consultant.

Employment as Lecturer and Course Leader:

1980; First lecture on the area of Nutrition, Movement and Self-motivation Since 1990; Intensification of activities and broadening of the area:
coping with stress, willingness to change, team-building, staff motivation, personal responsibility, learning, performance and success.
Clientele are mainly companies and organisations in Austria and German-speaking regions of central Europe, in addition to international organisations with English as the corporate language. (References can be provided on request).

Publications:

"Der kritische Punkt" 1992; Fourth edition out of stock.
"Am Puls des Erfolgs" 2010

Contributions / articles in:

SACHS, SCHÖNLEITNER, GANSTERER; Punch & Power,
Was Topmanager von Spitzensportlern lernen

PEYKER, PALETTA(Hrsg.); Sportkörper – Kunstkörper

GEISSLER P(Hrsg.); Mediation – Theorie und Praxis, Neue Beiträge zur Konfliktregelung

HENGL, SCHÄRMER (Hrsg); Berührende Begegnungen

Articles in numerous magazines and brochures